AND

Name of Person: Adhar / Passport number: Male (addressed here as the SECOND PARTY which expression shall unless repugnant to the context, including heirs, executors, administrators, legal representatives) on the second Part.

AND WHEREAS on a request by the SECOND PARTY, the FIRST PARTY has agreed to allot following research topic/paper titled, “Name of Paper and Research Topic” to the SECOND PARTY.

NOW THIS AGREEMENT WITNESSES AND ITS IS HEREBY AGREED BY AND BETWEEN THE PARTIES TO AS FOLLOWS:

1): First party will provide coaching to second party by exposing the second party to research process and giving second party necessary experience in research paper writing (leading to a publication in a conference / journal on the above mentioned topic) for a nominal fee of Rs. 35,000 + 18% GST (= Rs. 41, 300 only) and it is to be paid VIA Google-Pay to 9935603408). Structured project as above will be allotted to second party on which he works for an average period of seven months. Second party that pays this fee and works for the above stipulated period, will get authorship of the resulting article / publication. Project begins on or after 1 July 2024.

2): Correctness and originality of the research paper is the responsibility of the first party and if this is found untrue at a later date money as mentioned in (1) will be returned in full to the second party. In any other case this money (as mentioned in (1)) is NON-REFUNDABLE. Also it is mentioned here that first party holds the sole copyright of the above research topic/research paper that is part of the six books of working papers written by the first party during 2019-2022.

3): Once the second party pays fees mentioned in (1), then the above topic cannot be assigned to anyone else.

4): First Party will provide the second party necessary reading material and access to video lectures to help Second Party attain a level that will make paper writing easier for Second Party (on the topic assigned to second party). Please note that the hypotheses and/or the research model provided to second party cannot be changed at all and first party will have the final right to edit the research paper as he wishes.

5): Second party will be required to do literature review on the topic in Google and in Open Access Journals and will be required to read and familiarize him/her-self thoroughly about the literature and new method developed. Second party will help in paper editing also.

6): When paper is ready in final form, an interview would be conducted with the second party and a grade will be awarded on his/her performance in the interview. In some topics, if the student scores more than B minus, then the student has an option to get first authorship of the said research paper at an extra nominal fee of Rs. 30,000 + 18% GST (= Rs. 35,400): to be paid VIA Google-Pay to 9935603408). Otherwise (if the second party gets a grade lower than B-Minus in the interview) the second party will not get the first authorship.

7): Second party will be required to pay registration charges (of the conference or the publication fee of the journal) in full and bear travel expenses in full to present the paper in conference so that paper can be published. Then the second party paying this fee will get second authorship of the said article. If second party is unable to pay registration charges and travel expenses in full, then the second party will have to settle for third or fourth authorship of the research paper that will be published.

8): That the second party agrees to pay the publication charges (registration and travel expenses) of a national conference at least (if he is not able to bear expensive publication charges of the international conferences).

9): It is understood by both parties that the time taken for the resulting paper to get published may take more than two years also from the completion of the project (a certificate will be issued to second party on the completion of the project).

10): Both parties agree that exactly one publication will be done on the topic assigned; as either journal publication or international publication or national conference publication.

11): for any legal dispute matter will be heard in Kanpur courts only.

Witness here of the parties here to have executed and subscribe their representative hand on this date the 2024 at Kanpur.
